SOME CATCH—O. C. Olson of Plenty, Sask., who is spending his vacation in Clearwater, Florida, is shown here returning to port following a one-day fishing trip into the Gulf of Mexico with a good catch of big black Grouper.

SUB-HUNTING WENDIBELLS—Five planes of the British Navy's first anti-submarine helicopter squadron fly in formation near their Gortor, England base after the unit was formally placed in operation. This squadron, equipped with U.S.-made Sikorsky HO4A's, will operate from Malta.

ART FOR GOSH SAKES—Angelo Savelli, a Italian master of modern art, scans a selection he'll be bringing to this country for exhibition. Savelli hopes that American critics will be more enthusiastic about his work than were some Italians, who admit they don't understand it. The show who must have a label, the painting at left is called "Morning Glory."

PRELUDE TO SUMMER—Coney Island in New York is getting ready for the summer crowds. Above, "Spottly" Obba checks a guide wire on a parachute drop, while the drop looms overhead. The giant umbrella frame.

TWIRLING TOT—Her smile helps, but it's really her talent. That's why four-year-old Linda Kay Bialas of Chicago, Ill., is wearing all these medals. The baton-twirling tot has accumulated over 25 medals and two trophies while competing in five mid-west states during the past year.

AND AWAY IT WENT! Chicago isn't known as the "Windy City" for nothing. Ulysses Butler, Chicago cab driver, looks down at the hood which was blown off his cab in high winds.

SEEN ENVOY—Kato Matsuoka, the new Japanese Ambassador to Canada. A former diplomat, he has been special assistant to Foreign Minister Katsuo Okamori since 1952. He succeeds Sadao Sugawara, Japan's first post-war Ambassador to Canada.

NO SWEET TOOTH—A young visitor to Oakland Lake, Fort Worth, Texas, offers a duck some of her lollipop. The duck is interested but somewhat non-pleased.

END RECORD Atom-powered submarine, the USS Sea Wolf now under construction at West Mill, N.Y., gets its hull. The hull is being moved at the rate of 10 feet an hour through a temporary hole cut in the bottom of the drydock.

TWO DEPUTY U.S. marshals forcibly remove Myles Horton, center, of Monticello, Tenn., from the Senate Internal Security subcommittee hearing in New Orleans, La. His removal was ordered when he refused to answer questions about a former instructor at the Highlander Folk School of which he is a director.

CANADA'S HONORARY PROVINCE of Los Angeles, so-called because of the many Canadian-born residents, received official recognition from its north-of-the-border neighbors with a coat of arms to prove it. Here, W. J. Borrie (right), of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, as Canadian-born president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, presents the "official seal" marking the ceremony, to Charles Deloy (left), acting Sumner Alexander looks on.

A U.S. AIR FORCE B-44 Martin Matador guided missile is poised in launching position on its mobile launcher. The radar-controlled, pilotless bomber takes off with rocket assistance.

NO HOOKS, buttons or fastenings are used in the above dress, in navy-blue jersey acetate. It just slips on like magic and holds itself in a fluid line. Note the hand-ful of drape at the off-center neckline and flattering hipline; the red-velvet skirt that slips up the side for easy walking.

Thomas Young, English scientist, was a prodigy at an age when most children were reading Mother Goose rhymes. He was then learning foreign languages. At the age of 34, he could write in 14 languages.
